

CANTON.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Canton, 29th December.
SUPPRESSING THE KWANGTUNG REVOLT—
THE NATIVE CHRISTIANS.

It is said that the Acting Vice-roy Tak Sow has sent despatches to the Consuls saying that so far he has succeeded in suppressing the rebellion in Kwangtung, that he has sent emissaries to find out and arrest any person or persons suspected of having had anything to do with the outbreak, and that in case any native Christians be arrested under suspicion or otherwise of having anything to do with the rebels and brought to trial, as they are equally with non-Christians amenable to the laws of China, the missionaries must not interfere; otherwise he says it would be impossible for the Chinese officials to do their duty in effectually stamping out the rebellion.

NORTHERN NOTES.

The following items are from the Peking and Tientsin Times of the 15th inst.—

The International Club in Peking was opened on Sunday, the 9th inst. Count von Wallenstein is the President.

A Court official named Su Li-lin-kai has been discovered revealing Court secrets, and has been handed to the Board of Punishment.

The Board of Revenue is stated to have drawn Tls. 300,000 from the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank in Peking to defray the expenses of the Metropolitan officials.

The Chin Pao states that owing to the poverty among the people, the house tax of 1,000 cash levied in the British quarter of Peking has been remitted.

All reports from Shensi confirm the rumoured sufferings from famine. The Cantonese have sent several contributions to the starving people, but it is questionable how much will reach the destitute quarter.

A great quantity of counterfeit coin, both dollars and twenty cent pieces, is being made in some of the villages round, and we hear that a foreigner has also been concerned in this mischievous business as well as the natives.

The British military authorities are constructing a strong bridge over the canal on the Race Course Road, the existing one, albeit new, not being regarded as strong enough for artillery traffic. They are also, we notice, engaged laying water pipes in the Extra Concession.

At Yao-Wu, where the Russians had a camp some time since, a quantity of Chinese ammunition was buried, as the Russians found it useless to their guns. Since they have vacated the camp, the Chinese have been going there secretly by night and digging the ammunition up.

The Chin Pao publishes a telegram stating that acting under the advice of the high officials in the Court, Tang Fulin has been given an Imperial Commission to visit Mongolia, Tibet, Kansu, etc., to enlist soldiers and raise an Imperial guard. The real object is to get him and his obstructing forces out of the way, and clear the road for the Imperial return.

The Provisional Government have succeeded in arresting a number of counterfeit cash coiners lately, and have seized a quantity of machinery. The coiners admitted having thirty-seven laboratories in the village of Ho-chwangtze, where they were caught, and gave the name of a foreign compradore who is associated in the business.

The port closed unexpectedly on the 8th inst., and the river is frozen hard in most of the reaches, while skating has been liberally indulged in on the canal and ponds for the past ten days. Very great inconvenience has been experienced owing to the port closing before half the steamers at the Bar had discharged their cargoes, and several of the stores here have experienced considerable loss through their Christmas goods having to go back to Shanghai. The community will miss a great many of the agreeable accessories of Christmas in consequence, and the supply of many necessary lines will be limited.

We cannot but feel the greatest satisfaction that whatever other rascals may be abroad ones at least got off their deserts in the Native City last week. The execution of Tan Wen-hua gave as much satisfaction to the Chinese as to foreigners, even more so, as they appear to have been even less keenly interested in his qualities than we were, and they are unanimous in the opinion that the military authorities have done an exceedingly good work in removing him. In addition to being a pronounced foreign hater, Tan squeezed every Chinese in foreign employ from whom it was possible to extract a dollar, and he was consequently dredged by the compradores in Tien-sin.

The Tongku correspondent of the same paper, writing on the 12th inst., records the presents on the 9th to Capt. F. M. Wise of the S. S. Monocacy and Mr. R. F. Strangmann, assistant Surveyor and Harbour Master of Imperial Chinese Customs at Tongku, of a large banner 8 feet long and 4 feet wide, bearing inscription in Chinese characters wishing them a happy life, and had their names Chinese. The banner was presented to these men by the people of the Yu-chia-pen, mostly known as the Fish Village, in regard of their services in saving the village from destruction by the Russian soldiers after the battle and several houses had been burnt.
